Jean Orliac | Domaine de l'Hortus

Some of the greatest wines to be found in Pic Saint loup are produced by this passionate winemaker who created the 32-hectare vineyard twenty years ago. Made from grenache, syrah and mourvedre, reds are intense and display aromas of pepper, black fruits and garrigue. The grande cuvee combines concentration and silky texture.

PRESS REVIEW - THE WINE SPECTATOR

White Grande Cuvée 2004 91 points

Ripe, full-bodied style, with good balance and structure to the ripe apple, pear and butterscotch flavors. Hickory smoke notes fill the finish.

Red Grande Cuvée 2003 93 points

Powerful, exotic, luscious. This red really brings it all together with its firm, seductive flavors of red fruit, meat and Asian spice, backed up by plenty of structure and loads of silky tannins. Finish is filled with layers of chocolate and licorice.
